MANY ATTRACTIONS OFFERED.

Bright Prospects for Successful Season at Rockbridge Baths.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Rockbridge Baths, Va., July 1.—The season at the Rockbridge Baths opened June 17, under the most encouraging circumstances, ten guests arriving the first day. No place in the Virginia mountains can offer more natural attractions. Besides riding, driving, mountain climbing and all the usual things to interest one, there is excellent fishing in the river, which runs just back of the hotel. The chief place of interest, however, is the swimming pool. Parties from nearby places come in each day, and several parties have motored from Staunton to spend a few days and enjoy a swim.
